PET CONNECTION—Meet Blu!

Blu is a beautiful, blue-eyed Siamese/tabby mix adult cat. He was very shy when he came into his new environment, but is warming up now. He comes out of his shell when there is less commotion going on. He doesn't really socialize with the other cats; he's more of a loner. He is sweet and loving with people, but does have a Siamese attitude at times. Blu is up to date on shots, spayed/neutered, tested feline leukemia negative and micro-chipped. If this handsome fella is just what you are looking for, call 526-4500 to arrange a meeting or apply for adoption online at ccilhs.org.

Daisy got some attention from volunteer Loni Hoffman at the CCHS Meet and Greet.

Volunteer Carle Rehkemper watched over Bella at her first CCHS Meet and Greet Saturday.

Visitors, volunteers and pets did some meeting and greeting Saturday at Breese North Side Park.

Little Daisy was hoping for some time out of her carrier.

Mosely watched her first Meet and Greet from the safety of her carrier.

Everybody was willing, but it was hard for Truman to play with Romeo and Juliet from outside the puppy pen.

Muff had a friendly greeting for Tony Badstebner,

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

CCHS needs volunteers to help at the building.

There is always a need for help at CCHS events.

Fostering is a big commitment, but worth the effort. CCHS can always use good fosters. The more fosters we have, the more dogs we can help.

Call 526-4500 or stop by the building at 1301 Apple Lane for more information about volunteering.

Volunteer and see how good it feels to be part of an organization helping pets find loving homes.
