CCHS HOSTS GREENWALD WORKSHOP

William J Greenwald presented a leadership workshop hosted by CCHS at Knotty Pine Wednesday, July 23.

CCHS had the unique opportunity of presenting “Creating Magic through Leadership and Teamwork,” a workshop featuring William J. Greenwald, world-renowned neuroleaderologist Wednesday, July 23, at Knotty Pine in Breese from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

William J. Greenwald is founder and Chief Neuroleaderologist at the Windsor Leadership Group. Over the past two decades he has held key leadership and executive coaching positions with firms around the world, such as Vanguard Financial Group, JP Morgan Private Bank and Humana. His two graduate degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and post-graduate training at Harvard University make it possible for him to help executives optimize their talents, accelerate their strategy and change leadership efforts.

“Creating Magic through Leadership and Teamwork” is a learning event developed by William Greenwald in collaboration with Lee Cockerell, author and former Executive Vice-President of Operations for the Walt Disney World Resort. The workshop is designed to enhance leadership practices and service excellence.

CCHS was proud to offer guests an opportunity to attend this workshop at no cost.

Lunch was served for $10 per person.

Folks from the Marathon group discussed one of the questions Greenwald proposed for consideration at the workshop.

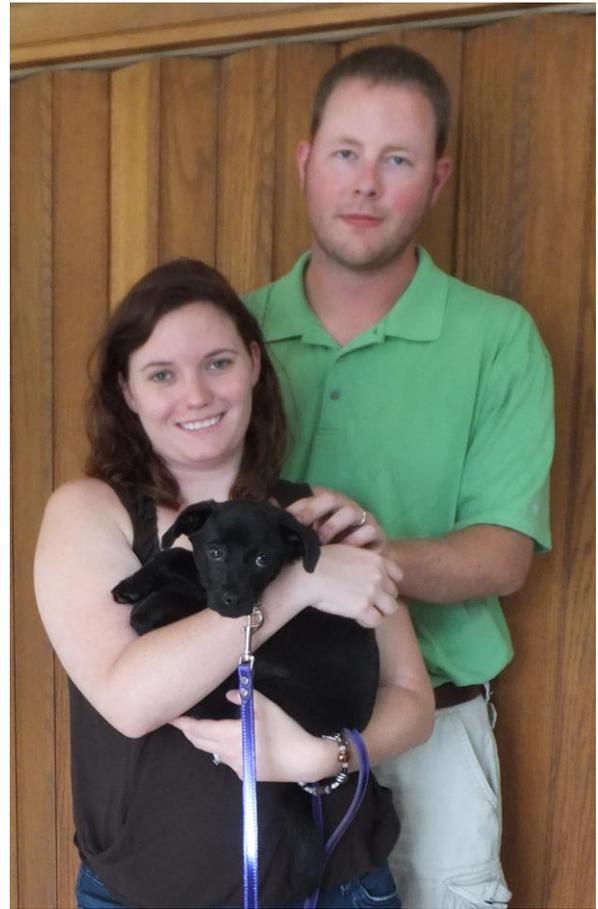

Greenwald contemplated an answer for a question to help CCHS volunteer Kim McCauley.

PET TAG/ MICRO-CHIP MAY BRING YOUR LOST PET HOME QUICKLY

If your pet wanders off and is wearing a tag with his name and your phone number, all it will take to get him home is a phone call.

Another good way to improve your pet's chances of getting home is to microchip him.

This tiny implant carries a number to identify your pet so the company where the chip is registered will contact you if your pet turns up at a vet, shelter or the police.

CCHS offers both tags and micro-chipping!

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

CCHS is entirely run by volunteers. We hope you will find a little time each month to volunteer at. Be a part of the process!

Check your calendars and contact ccilhsvolunteer@gmail.com or call 526-4500 if you find a little time available.

Feel free to stop by anytime and ask what you can do to help.
